February General Meeting Minutes

Bridge and Bay Garden Club

GENERAL MEETING Winn Room at the Coronado Library

February 25, 2019

Meeting was called to order by member Karen Moore at 9:45 a.m. President Sandy Shortt was absent.

After the Pledge, Karen introduced seven visitors. There were about 45 members and guests present. She thanked Kathy Beaton and the hostesses for the many treats. She also handed out new member's E-mail lists.

Inspiration: Ann Boyd gave a lovely talk.

Minutes: No report. Karen said that those who want to look at back Minutes to see Andrea.

Treasurer: Tami reported $11,251.80 as balance; some annual payments will be due soon.

Civic Interest: Teresa Alley gave her Hort Report: Penny Pines bought two plots; where to see beautiful spring flower displays; what should be planted soon.

Today there is a "cutting exchange" - so we can check the side table to see what we may want.

Nominating and Hand Tied Bouquets Committees are Fran Monroe and Lynn Keeling. Lynn is also working on the Orange Avenue "street banners" and The Bayleaf. She is looking for volunteers for the April Flower Show on April 13 and 14.

Donna Otten introduced our speaker for today: Dorothy Stanley – who is a member (Emeritus) and a specialist on "Miniature Arrangements" and has shown and won many prizes for her beautiful work. She gave an inspiring talk on the pleasures of little bouquets and many helpful hints and guidelines on how to enter and win a ribbon at the show. She answered many questions from the members.

Karen reminded members to take home some cuttings. Meeting adjourned.

GENERAL MEETING Winn Room at the Coronado Library

March 25, 2019

The meeting was called to order at 9:50 a.m. by Tami Bickel since President Sandy Shortt was absent.

After the Pledge, Tami introduced four guests, thanked the ladies for the refreshments and gave a small inspiration, (Ann Boyd was absent.) There were about 48 members present.

Minutes: No corrections or additions.

Treasurer: Tami reported a balance of $11,324.14. $500.00 was donated to the Coronado Floral Association, (annual donation). She thanked those who gave silent donations to the Club. She said that all members are welcome to the Board Meetings.

Civic Interest: Theresa Alley has withdrawn her name from this committee. (Cancer treatments). There will need to be volunteers for this.

Membership: Judy and Sandra: Dues ($35.00) for next year should be paid by the end of May.

Nominating: After Fran Monroe introduced her committee, she announced officers for next year:

President: Tami Bickel Corresponding Secretary: Pat Sedgwick Treasurer: Karen Foster
Vice President: Gail Stewart Secretary: Andrea Luttinen

Social: Kathy Beaton said hostess volunteers are needed.

Communications: Alexis reported on "hand tied bouquets" ----- flower and ribbon preparation will be on Friday, April 12 at 10:00 a.m. in Spreckels Park, at the Children's area. A volunteer sign up was passed around for working the Flower Show bouquets April 13 and 14.

New Business: Tami reported that our Field Trip to the Japanese Garden in Balboa Park is this Thursday, March 28. About 15 have signed up. Friends are welcome. We will meet for a ride at the corner of 6th and Orange at 10:00 a.m. Drivers might be needed. $10.00 admission. Lunch will be on our own. A big THANK YOU TO TAMI FOR ARRANGING THIS.

Program: Chuck McClung gave a fun and friendly talk on "How to Get Your Orchids to Re-Bloom". He gave many good hints and answered many questions.

The next General Meeting will be April 22.

GENERAL MEETING WINN ROOM AT THE CORONADO LIBRARY

April 22, 2019

The meeting was called to order by President Sandy Shortt at 9:45 a.m.

Sandy thanked all the people who brought the many snacks; she introduced two guests: Jeanne who is Tami Bickel's cousin and Ladonna Herbert who is a long time member, although living in Alaska.

Inspiration: Bobbie Perkins told a lovely Mother's Day story. She then auctioned off some leftover plants from the Flower Show.

Minutes: approved as submitted.

Treasurer: Tami reported $10,206.75; she passed around the Penny Pines basket.

Reports:

Sandy Shortt will be gone until May 28. Chris Jeter is home after a serious fall; Teresa Alley is doing well and is out and about. Some good news.

Civic Interest: Lynn Keeling sent her thanks to everyone who worked on behalf of the Flower Show. Alexi will be chair of the July 4th Parade.  She will need volunteers. *****

Communications: Alexi will be getting next year's membership book ready for the printer. It should be ready in September.  She will need volunteers. *****

Membership: 34 members here today. Sandra Killmeyer reported 1 new paid membership from the Flower Show booth (Margaret Stieneker). Dues for next year are now due: $35.00.

Nominating: Great job to Fran Monroe and her committee: Denise DePula, Chris Jeter, Susan Suchy. The following were then elected by the members: President: Tami Bickel, Vice President: Gail Stewart, Corresponding Secretary: Pat Sedgwick, Treasurer: Karen Foster, Secretary: Andrea Luttinen.

Social: No report.

Program: Barbara Murphy then introduced our speaker, George Spear, a Floral Designer. He is a well known national flower show judge, and is very interesting to hear.
